Preamble.

---

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, victory having crowned the forces of the United States of America, in upholding the principles of the Nation against Great Britain in the conflict known as the War of 1812 ; we, the survivors and descendants of those who participated in that contest, have joined together to perpetuate its memories and victories, to collect and secure for preservation, rolls, records, books and other documents relating to that period ; to encourage research and publication of historical data, including memorials of patriots of that era in our National history ; to care for and, when necessary, assist in burying actual veterans of that struggle ; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Society shall be known as the "General Society of the War of 1812."

ARTICLE II.

ORGANIZATION.

The General Society shall be composed of State Societies, which shall meet annually, on the day appointed therefor in their respective by-laws, and oftener if they shall deem it necessary.

The State Societies shall choose annually such officers for their own government and in such manner as shall be set forth in their respective by-laws, and shall transmit annually to the General Society a list of the officers so chosen for the year and such other information as may be of interest to the Society at large. Each State Society shall conform in the number and character of its officials to those of the General Society, and shall regulate all matters respecting its own affairs, and shall judge of the qualifications of members therein. Provided always, That the action of such State Society be, in all cases, in conformity with the provisions of this Constitution.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The officers of the General Society shall consist of a President General, a Vice-President General for each State Society represented, a Secretary General and Assistant Secretary General, a Treasurer General and Assistant Treasurer General, a Registrar General, a Surgeon General, a Judge Advocate General and a Chaplain General. They shall be chosen by ballot at the regular meeting of the Society, by and from members in good standing, and shall serve until the next regular meeting or until their successors are duly chosen.

There shall be an Executive Committee, consisting of the officers of the General Society and a delegate from each State Society, to be chosen by ballot at the regular meeting of the General Society, upon selection by the respective State delegation hereinafter provided for. It shall be the duty of said Committee, nine (9) members of which shall constitute a quorum, to supervise the affairs of the General Society, as well as the admission of State Societies, and transact such other business as may come before it. The said Committee shall meet in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, once in every six (6) months, during the time intervening between the meetings, and subject to the approval of, the General Society.

ARTICLE IV.

MEETINGS.

The regular meeting of the General Society shall be held every second year, on or about the nineteenth day of June, being the anniversary of the declaration of war by the United States against Great Britain, and special meetings may be held upon the order of the President General, or upon the request of two (2) State Societies.

Such meetings shall consist of the officers of the General Society, the delegate from each State of the Executive Committee, and a representation not exceeding five (5) additional delegates from each State Society; which representation from each State shall be entitled to five (5) votes. The expenses of all such meetings shall be borne by the State Societies.

At each meeting of the General Society, the time and place of which shall have been determined upon at the preceding meeting of the Society, the circular letters and other communications sent by the State Societies, shall be considered, and where questions in dispute may be referred to it, the General Society shall have power to act thereon.

ARTICLE V.

FORMATION OF STATE SOCIETIES.

The General Society shall be located in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

The Executive Committee thereof shall have the right at any of its meetings to warrant, constitute and recognize one State Society in any State or Territory of the United States, whenever ten (10) or more persons, who are already members or are eligible to membership in this Society, and residing in said State or Territory, shall apply for authority to organize such Society, or where such Society may already be formed and is approved by this Society.

The style and title of each State Society shall be as follows: "The Society of the War of 1812, in the State of....."."

The members of each such State Society shall be borne upon the membership roll of the General Society.

ARTICLE VI.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one (21) years, who participated in, or who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the army, navy, revenue-marine or privateer service of the United States, offering proof thereof satisfactory to the State Society to which he may make application for membership, and who is of good moral character and reputation, may become a member of this Society when approved of by said State Society, under such regulations as it may make for passing upon applications for membership.

In case of the failure of lineal descendants of an actual participant in the War on behalf of the United States, one collateral descendant, who is deemed worthy, may be admitted to represent the said participant.

Every application for membership shall be made in writing, upon such form as may be set forth by this Society for that purpose, which application shall be made in duplicate, and one copy thereof filed in the archives of the General Society.

ARTICLE VII.

TRANSMISSION OF LISTS OF MEMBERS AND DUES FROM STATE SOCIETIES.

The Secretary of each State Society shall transmit to the Secretary of the General Society a list of the members thereof, together with a list of those from whom said members derive claim to membership, and thereafter, upon the admission of additional members, the Secretary thereof shall transmit to the General Society such similar information respecting said members.

Each State Society shall pay into the treasury of this Society an entrance fee of ten dollars, and remit annually thereafter the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every member in good standing on the rolls of such State Society, so reported on January first of each year.

ARTICLE VIII.

INSIGNIA.

The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge of gold, pendant from a ribbon. Said badge shall be in the form of a Maltese cross (emblematic of faith in the justice of our cause), between four (4) golden eagles (symbolizing the four sections—north, south, east and west of our common country), and resting upon an anchor of gold (representative of the American navy, by which so many glorious victories of the War of 1812 were achieved). The arms of the cross to be enameled in scarlet, with a white border, and to bear the insignia, in gold, of the four (4) arms of service (infantry, cavalry, artillery and naval), and in the centre thereof, a medallion of dark-blue enamel, with the figures 1812 thereon in gold, surrounded by a band of black enamel, bearing eighteen (18) stars in gold, representing the number of States of the Union during the period of conflict. The anchor and cross to be suspended from the ribbon by a ring of gold.

The ribbon shall be of watered silk, dark-blue in the centre, with white and black stripes on the sides successively, and edged with scarlet; the entire ribbon to be one and one-half inches in width and the same dimensions in displayed length.

The insignia shall be worn on the left breast by the members of the Society at all general meetings, on all occasions of ceremony, or when they shall assemble for any stated purpose or celebration. On all other occasions, other than those specified above, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern, in the upper buttonhole of the left lapel of the coat, which rosettes, like the insignia, shall be procured and issued by the Secretary of the Society, and by whom a record of all such issues to members will be kept. The insignia shall never be worn as an article of jewelry or ornament, and should be returned to the Society on the resignation or expulsion of a member; but otherwise, it shall be deemed an heirloom.

The custodian of the insignia shall be the Secretary General, and he shall issue the same to members of the State Societies under such rules as may be formulated by the General Society.

ARTICLE IX.

SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, and shall consist of a rising sun, bearing on its face a representation of the bombardment of Fort McHenry by the British fleet, while above the sun and its rays, rises, displayed, the Star Spangled Banner of our country, with the motto of the Society, "For our Country's Rights," in small Roman capital letters overhead. The design described to be surrounded by wreaths of oak and laurel (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor on each side of and below said design. The whole to be encircled with a waving ribbon, one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, "The General Society of the War of 1812."

The Secretary General shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be used only for the purposes designated by the Society.

ARTICLE X.

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP.

Each member of the Society shall be entitled to a certificate of membership, which shall be signed by the President, Secretary and Registrar of the State Society to which he may belong, as well as by the President General, Secretary General and Registrar General of the General Society, and to which the seal of the Society shall be affixed.

The form shall be as follows :

GENERAL SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

No alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution until a written resolution to that effect be offered at a meeting of this Society, considered and approved by two-thirds of the State Societies, and at the next or some subsequent meeting of the General Society, be ratified by the votes of the majority of the officers and delegates present.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS.

(To be ratified by the State Societies and approved finally at next meeting of the General Society, June 19, 1896.)

To amend Article II by striking out the words "number and," in the ninth line.

To amend Article IV by striking out the second paragraph, beginning with the words "such meetings" and ending with the words "borne by the State Societies," and substituting therefor the following: "Such meetings shall consist of the officers of the General Society, each of whom shall be entitled to one vote and a representation not exceeding five (5) delegates from each State Society, (one of whom shall be the delegate to the Executive Committee of the General Society), which representation from each State Society shall be entitled to five (5) votes."

To amend Article VI by adding at the end of the second paragraph, the words, "Provided always, That such representation shall be limited to the descendant of either a brother or sister of the participant in the war, in right of whose services application for membership is made."

To amend Article VIII by adding after the words "period of conflict" in the twelfth line, the following: "The reverse of said insignia to bear in the centre of the cross, a wreath of oak leaves in gold, one-half inch in diameter and in conformity with the design submitted to the General Society."

To amend Article IX by substituting for the first paragraph, the following: "The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter and shall consist of an eagle displayed, in the centre of the seal, holding in his talons the American flag of the period (of fifteen stars), with rays of a rising sun above, and wreaths of oak and laurel (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor, below. The motto of the Society, 'For our Country's Rights,' to be placed above the sun's rays in small Roman capital letters, and the whole to be encircled with a ribbon one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, 'General Society of the War of 1812. Founded 1814.' The seal to be in conformity with the design submitted to the General Society."

Act of Congress

Relating to the Insignia of Military Societies, with Decisions of the Secretary of War thereon.

JOINT RESOLUTION granting permission to officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States to wear the badges adopted by Military Societies of men who served in the War of the Revolution, the War of Eighteen Hundred and Twelve, the Mexican War, and the War of the Rebellion.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the distinctive badges adopted by Military Societies of men who served in the Armies and Navies of the United States in the War of the Revolution, the War of Eighteen Hundred and Twelve, the Mexican War, and the War of the Rebellion, respectively, may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony* by officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States who are members of said organizations in their own right.

Approved, September 25, 1890.

Decision of Acting Secretary of War, April 25, 1891.

Officers of the Army who are members by inheritance of any of the Societies referred to in the act of September 25, 1890, published in General Orders, No. 133, of November 18, 1890, from this office, are entitled to wear the badges adopted by such Societies on occasions of ceremony.* (Circular No. 4, Head Qrs. of the Army, A. G. O., Washington, May 9, 1891.)

(Extract.)

* * * * *

* In compliance with the above Joint Resolution of Congress, * * the phrase "occasions of ceremony," in the resolution, will include all musters, reviews, inspections, parades and other occasions on which officers and men are required to appear in full-dress uniform.

The badges are to be worn on the left breast of the coat, the tops of the ribbons forming a horizontal line, the outer end of which shall be from two to four inches (according to the height of the wearer), below the upper line of the shoulder.

The ribbons are to be suspended from a bar of metal passed through their upper ends and attached to the coat. (General Orders, No. 133, Head Qrs. of the Army, A. G. O., Washington, November 18, 1890.)

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, in the providence of Almighty God, victory having crowned the forces of the United States of America in the second conflict against Great Britain, which was waged to uphold the principles of freedom, and known as the War of 1812; we, the descendants of those who participated in that contest, have united to perpetuate their memories and victories; to collect and secure for preservation relics, rolls, records, books and documents relating to that period; to encourage research and the publication of historical data; to conserve its landmarks; to designate the scenes of its struggles by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom and to foster true patriotism.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This Society shall be known as the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of Maryland, and its headquarters shall be in the City of Baltimore.

ARTICLE II.

Membership.

Any white male person, above the age of twenty-one years, of good reputation, who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the Army, Navy, Revenue-Marine or Privateer service of, and who was at all times unfailing in his allegiance to the United States of America, on application to the Executive Committee, through the Registrar, setting forth in writing his claim of eligibility, accompanied by proof of his pedigree and satisfactory documentary evidence of said service, subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, who shall be approved by two members of this Society, in good standing, (evidenced by their signatures) and accompanied by the initiation fee (of $2.00), the insignia fee (of $1.50), and the annual dues (of $3.00), shall be eligible to membership in the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of Maryland.

All dues shall be payable in advance and any member one year in arrears in the payment thereof shall not be deemed to be in good standing.

ARTICLE III.

Officers and Executive Committee.

The officers shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, an Historian, and a Chaplain, who shall have all the powers and duties usually pertaining to said offices, together with any officers of the General Society who may be members of this Society, and nine elected members, shall constitute the Executive Committee, which shall have general management and control of the affairs of the Society during the interim between its meetings.

The officers and three members, to serve on said Committee, shall be chosen by ballot at each annual meeting, when one of said committee shall be designated as this Society's delegate to the membership of the Executive Committee of the General Society of the War of 1812.

The Executive Committee to be chosen on October 25th, 1913, shall consist of the officers above named and nine other members, three of whom shall serve for the term of one year, three for a term of two years, and three for a term of three years, and after said election at each subsequent annual meeting, three members shall be chosen who shall serve as members of the Executive Committee for the term of three years. No one elected to fill a three year term or chosen to fill a vacancy shall at the end of any term be eligible for re-election for the space of one year.

Shall hold regular monthly meetings on the second Tuesdays of each month, excepting the months of July and August, and meet at the call of the President whenever in his judgment the interests of the Society will be promoted thereby; five members shall constitute a quorum, but a less number may adjourn.

Shall choose such delegates to represent the Society in the meetings of the General Society as the latter may from time to time require.

Shall appoint a nominating committee of three members, not later than September in each year, two of whom shall not be members of the Executive Committee, which shall report to the meeting of the Executive Committee next before the annual meeting of the Society, its recommendations for officers, and three members to be voted for at the ensuing election, to serve on the Executive Committee. The names submitted in this report shall be forwarded by the Secretary, in the form of a ballot, to each member, with the notice of, and at least five days prior to the annual meeting.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrict or prevent additional nominations from the floor, and the said ballot shall be so framed as to provide space for such additional nominations.

May accept all resignations and fill vacancies in its number occasioned by death, resignation, disability or other cause.

May waive the initiation fee in case of a member in good standing in the Society of another State, applying for membership.

After due notice and fair trial it may suspend, expel or drop any member who may have joined by means of defective papers; or who has been found guilty of conduct detrimental or language antagonistic to the interests or objects of this Society; or who may be two years in arrears in payment of his dues, and any one so suspended, expelled or dropped may be reinstated only upon such terms as the Executive Committee may prescribe. Subject in all cases to an appeal to the Society.

ARTICLE IV.

Meetings.

The regular annual business meeting of the Society shall be held on the 25th day of October, the anniversary of the incorporation of the Society.

The anniversaries of the Battle of North Point (September 12th), the Battle of New Orleans (January 8th), as well as such other events of the War of 1812 as the Executive Committee may authorize or appoint, shall be appropriately observed by the Society, and when any of such dates shall occur on a Sunday, the meeting shall be held the preceding day.

Special meetings of the Society may be convened upon the order of the President or the call of the Executive Committee, and at such meetings no business shall be considered, except that which is stated in the call therefor.

A quorum of the Society for the transaction of business shall consist of twenty members, but a less number may adjourn.

No questions involving party politics, religion or personalities shall be discussed at any meeting of the Society or its Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V.

Amendments.

No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution unless offered in writing at a regular meeting, referred to the Executive Committee and a copy, or the substance or purport thereof, shall be sent by the Secretary, with its approval or disapproval, to each member at least ten days in advance of the meeting at which it is to be acted upon, and passed at the next or a subsequent meeting by a two-third vote.

The Executive Committee may offer any such without presenting the same to a regular meeting, provided all other of the above requirements are complied with.

PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, victory having crowned the forces of the United States of America, in upholding the principles of the Nation against Great Britain in the conflict known as the War of 1812; we, the survivors and descendants of those who participated in that contest, have joined together to perpetuate its memories and victories, to collect and secure for preservation rolls, records, books and other documents relating to that period; to encourage research and publication of historical data, including memorials of patriots of that era in our national history; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The Society shall be known as the "SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812, OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA."

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, who participated in, or who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the army, navy, revenue-marine or privateer service of the United States, offering proof thereof satisfactory to the Executive Committee, and of good moral character and reputation, may become a member of this Society when approved of by the Board of Direction or the Society.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

The officers shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Historian, and an Executive Committee of seven members, who, together, shall form the Board of Direction, having the general management of affairs of this Society. They shall be chosen by ballot at the annual meetings of the Society, by and from members in good standing.

The Board of Direction shall control the affairs of the Society, regulate the terms and details of admission to membership, fix salaries, make appropriations, arrange for meetings (other than usual) and celebrations, receive delegates from similar constituted societies or individuals of national reputation—as patriots—and collect and provide for the due care and safety of books, documents, papers, portraits, relics and such literature relating to the War of 1812 as may be acquired by purchase, gift, bequest or loan.

ARTICLE IV.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Every application for membership shall be made in writing, and in duplicate upon the form provided by the Society for that purpose, subscribed by the applicant, setting forth claims of eligibility, and contain or be accompanied by proofs of same.

On the recommendation of two members, such application and proofs shall be submitted to the Executive Committee or to such sub-committee as they may select, who may approve of and report the same to the Board of Direction. Payment of the initiation fee and subscription to the declaration in the printed form of application, is required of each applicant on admission.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

The regular meeting of the Society shall be held in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America, and, inasmuch as the only justification of modern war is to improve relations between nations laboring under wrongs or indignities, and in order to establish for such peoples just bases for their future intercourse; and as the treaty of Ghent inaugurated between the United States and Great Britain an era of peace that has been unbroken for eighty years:

Therefore, the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812 selects as its day of celebration the eighteenth of February, the date on which said treaty was promulgated by the President of the United States.

Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of ten or more members to transact only such business as shall be specified in the call. No questions involving partisan politics, religion or offensive personalities shall be discussed at any meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

This Society shall conform to the General Society in its Constitution, but shall have the right to govern its own affairs outside of the restrictions prescribed therein. It shall elect each year, at its annual meeting, five delegates to represent its membership at the biennial or other meetings of the General Society and the President shall have power to fill vacancies.

ARTICLE VII.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

Any member found guilty of unlawful or improper conduct, after due notice and fair trial, may be expelled under rules and regulations to be made and provided for that purpose.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, and shall consist of a rising sun, bearing on its face a representation of the bombardment of Fort McHenry by the British fleet, while above the sun and its rays, rises, displayed, the Star Spangled Banner of our country, with the motto of the Society—"For our country's rights"—in small Roman capital letters overhead. The design described to be surrounded by wreaths of oak and laurel (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor on each side of and below said design. The whole to be encircled with a waving ribbon, one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing above in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, "The Society of the War of 1812," and below in similar letters, the words, "Founded 1854." The Secretary of the Society shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be used for the purposes designated by the Board of Direction.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENTS.

No alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution until a written resolution to that effect be offered at a meeting of the Society, and, at some subsequent meeting, receive the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

BY-LAWS.

FINANCES.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee shall be four (4) dollars; the annual dues one (1) dollar. Members who have not paid, will be deemed in arrears and debarred from voting at the meetings of the Society. Persons admitted to membership after October 1st of any year are exempt from payment of dues for that year. The payment at any one time of twenty-five (25) dollars shall entitle the member so paying to a life membership.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 2. The President, or, in his absence, a Vice-President, or, in their absence, a Chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society or Board of Direction, and shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer under general parliamentary rules. The President shall be, ex-officio, a member of all committees. He shall have power to call a meeting of the Board of Direction at such time and place as he may deem advisable. He shall represent this Society, either in person or by substitute, at such assemblages as may be consistent with the objects, aims and purposes of this Society.

SECRETARY.

SECTION 3. The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and perform such other duties as the Society or Board of Direction may reasonably require of him.

TREASURER.

SECTION 4. The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit the same in some banking institution, which shall be designated by the Board of Direction, to the credit of the "Society of the War of 1812." Such funds shall be drawn thence by the check of the Treasurer.

Out of these funds the Treasurer shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society, Board of Direction, or, in case of urgent necessity, the Executive Committee. He shall keep a true and accurate account of his receipts and payments; and at each annual meeting, report the full financial condition of the Society, when an auditing committee shall be appointed, who shall report the result of their audit to the Board of Direction.

REGISTRAR.

SECTION 5. The Registrar shall receive from the Secretary, file and keep on record, all the proofs upon which membership has been granted; a list of all certificates countersigned by him, and all documents, rolls, or other evidences of service in the War of 1812, of which the Society may become possessed.

HISTORIAN.

SECTION 6. The Historian shall prepare at least one historical paper during the year for which he is elected, and obituaries of members deceased during the year.

BOARD OF DIRECTION.

SECTION 7. The Board of Direction, composed of the elective officers of the Society, united with the Executive Committee, shall generally superintend the interests and have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. The Board may also be convened by the President at the written request of three of its members. Four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 8. At all meetings of the Society fifteen members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The order of business shall be as follows:

1. Prayer.
2. Reading of minutes.
3. Report of Board of Direction.
4. Reports from officers.
5. Reports from special committees.
6. Communications read.
7. Election of officers.
8. Unfinished business.
9. Miscellaneous business.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 9. Each member, on being notified of his admission, shall signify his adherence to the constitution and by-laws. His initiation fee and one year's dues shall be forwarded with his application.

SUSPENSION OF RULES.

SECTION 10. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended at any meeting of the Society or Board of Direction, by a two-thirds vote of those present when the exigencies of the case may require it.
